RADOSŁAW GORCZYCA

CAREER SUMMARY

I am an Android developer with 7 years of experience, primarily using Kotlin. I have contributed to major e-commerce apps such as Big Star, Reserved, and Sinsay, as well as the fitness-focused ErgData app. My strengths include rapid learning and excelling in challenging assignments. I take pride in my attention to detail, which makes me a valuable asset to any team building high-quality, user-focused mobile applications.

SKILLS AND STRENGTHS

- Expert in modern Android development, with deep knowledge of Kotlin, Jetpack Compose, and architectural best practices (MVVM, Clean Architecture).
- Strong focus on performance optimization, with a solid understanding of Android internals, rendering pipelines, and memory management.
- Advanced debugging and troubleshooting abilities, ensuring consistent performance across a wide range of devices and Android versions.
- Experienced in cross-functional collaboration, effectively communicating with developers, designers, product managers, and stakeholders to align technical solutions with business goals.
- Proficient in building scalable, maintainable, and modular codebases, with strong attention to clean code principles and long-term project sustainability.
- Tech stack: Kotlin, Java, Jetpack Compose, Android Jetpack libraries (Navigation, Room, WorkManager, etc.), Coroutines, Dependency Injection (Dagger, Hilt, Koin), Retrofit, OkHttp, Firebase (Auth, Firestore, Crashlytics, Analytics), Gradle, Modularization, Git, Google Play Console, CI/CD (e.g., Bitrise).
